Dear [Redacted]

I am in receipt of your letter of April 10, 1947, in which you suggest that you would like to come to Washington in May to discuss job possibilities in this organization.

I am enclosing herewith two copies of Form 57 which I suggest you accomplish and return to me at an early date. I do not wish to encourage you to come to Washington for an interview at this time unless you are coming for other reasons also.

Upon receipt of your Forms 57, we shall study your qualifications and advise you if and when we consider it advisable for you to make this trip.

Sincerely yours,

[Redacted]
